MATTERS THEATRICAL.

The Regular Season Now Open—Bookings for the Academy of Music—Vaudeville at the Resorts—Notes of Players and the New Plays.

Again the theatrical season is open and it promises to be one of the most successful of recent years. Al. Field's Minstrels packed the Academy of Music Friday night and it seems probable that "McFadden's Row of Flats" will do the same to-morrow at matinee and night. The public has given the stamp of its warm approval to the re-modelled Academy of Music, and Manager Vay Wyck, Lessee of the Academy, Manager Duesberry and Treasurer Le Faucheur are all to be congratulated on being connected with one of the finest play-houses in the South.

The personnel of the Academy of Music staff for this season is as follows:

H. D. Van Wyck, of New York and Norfolk, owner.

Thomas G. Leath, of Richmond, lessee—he being also lessee of the Academy of Music, Richmond, and the new Academy of Music at Newport News. The latter was opened Saturday night.

A. B. Duesberry, Local Manager.

L. J. LeFaucheur, Treasurer.

L. T. Blic, Assistant Treasurer.

J. M. Morgan, Advertising Agent.

J. V. Blic and C. A. Busky, Doorkeepers.

C. C. Cantone, Stage Carpenter.

Prof. Krueger, Leader of Orchestra.

W. S. Sherrick, Head Usher.

The Richmond Dispatch of Thursday has the following:

"The new Academy of Music in Norfolk has just been completed, and is ready for the opening, with Field's Minstrels as the bill to-morrow night. 'Mr. Leath, who is the manager of the Norfolk and Newport News houses, as well as of the Richmond Academy, says that the Norfolk house, while not so artistic in the interior decorations as the Richmond house, is far beyond it in every other particular. The house was a better one to start with, and more money has been spent upon it than was spent upon the local theatre."

The bookings for the Academy of Music for the season just opened have been made with good judgment and the best to be had in all lines has been signed up. The attractions booked up to date are as follows:

After "McFadden's Row of Flats" will come September 10th, "The Man O'Warman," September 11th, "Sol Smith Russell's play," "A Poor Relation," with Frank Keenan as star, 12th and 13th, "The Sorrows of Satan," 14th and 15th, Frederick Warder, these will be followed by "The Belle of New York," "Packard Opera Company," "Sherlock Holmes," "Mistakes Will

THE PAVILION THEATER.

The vaudeville season at this popular resort will not close for several weeks yet. Manager Le Faucheur has secured a very strong bill for the coming week, one that will please as well as any that has been seen at the View this summer. The bill for the week includes Frank Gardner and Lottie Vincent, who present an original musical farce entitled "The Shattered Idol," introducing singing and dancing per excellence. Jack Norworth, one of the best black face comedians on the stage; Keogh and Ballard, who number their friends by the hundreds in this city; Fred and Forest, the musical tramp and the elastic singer, and others. Two performances daily, except Sunday, at 4:30 and 8:30 p. m.

Now that the theatrical season is again open it is timely to remind would-be speculators in theatre tickets that special notice in the theatre is prohibited in Norfolk unless the speculator has a license. Theatre ticket speculation proved a serious nuisance on several occasions last season, and that is what led to the passage of the ordinance. The ordinance read that "every person other than the manager or proprietor of a duly licensed theatre, or of any other licensed place of public amusement, who sells tickets entitling the holder thereof to admission to a theatre or other licensed place of public amusement, shall pay for the privilege of the stage a tax of $50 per year, or for part of a year.

"A violation of this ordinance shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $20 and not more than $100, recoverable as other city fines are now recoverable."

Another new ordinance that interests theatre-goers is that requiring hats off in places of public amusement. This applies to both sexes and is aimed at "a hat or any ornament or adornment on the head liable to prevent those sitting in the rear of such person obtaining a view of the stage." The fine for infraction of this ordinance is not less than $2, nor more than $10.

The Pleasure Pier Theatre, at Ocean View, last night closed its opening season with a good house. The theatre was opened six weeks ago, and has proven very popular with visitors to Ocean View. It is probable that some new features in the way of attractions will be added next season. Manager H. E. Elam, who has been handling the Pleasure Pier, leaves for his home at Suffolk this morning. He is a hustler and by his genial qualities has made a host of friends, who will hope to see him here again next season as manager of the Pleasure Pier. Mr. Elam will open his theatre at Suffolk, September 12th, with Mr. Frederick Warder in his new play "The Duke's Jester," in which the latter has scored such a distinguished success. Mr. Elam has been particularly fortunate in his bookings for the coming season, and will give his Suffolk patrons some of the finest attractions on the road.

The new Academy of Music at Newport News was lighted up last Friday for the first time, some representatives of the press and a few invited guests being present to note the effect, which was extremely fine. The beautiful edifice is very completely lighted, and its interior is brilliantly set off when the current is turned on. The new house was opened last night by Al. G. Field's Minstrels that showed by continued applause their appreciation of both the beautiful new theatre and Field's splendid company.

AT BUCKROE BEACH.

An European novelty will be the highlight of Manager Rex's new show Monday evening. Nina, the endurance dancer, who has just completed a week at the Pavilion Theatre, Ocean View. Her evolutions are rendered dazzling to the eye by a prismatic display of colors, the effect being a series of gorgeous pictures.

Other attractions for the coming week are Matthews and Thompson
